A compact camcorder for stunning 4K video with fast AF, 20x optical zoom, UVC streaming support and more

Start your filmmaking journey in glorious 4K with the compact and lightweight Canon LEGRIA HF G70. An 8-blade aperture achieves cinema-worthy blurred highlights, for a better aesthetic when shooting creatively. Dramatic effects are well within reach, too, with slow and fast motion recording and a custom picture menu to match colour with other Canon cameras. And when you want to share your video feed, livestream the HD footage in UVC[1] via USB-C over a computer.
